Cross Talk Ministries:

I hope everything is fine when you get this letter. Thank you so much for your envelopes and for over everything for your encouraging words it's help me a lot. By the time I got the news I was really depress and your word helps me to get up on my feet again. It's not easy being incarcerated and I never be in troubles before and I trust in our Lord this going to be the best. I pray God every day for you and for all the work that you are doing. God bless you sisters.

Thanks for everything
your sister in God
