First I want to say thank-you! your Package really really made my day! I also want to say that the scriptures & quotes were right on time!! they fit my situation perfectly. you see I was currently at a work release / therapeutic community at first I did not want to be there at all, there was so many rules, it truly felt like a slave camp. So of course it was a struggle everyday, I really felt like Jesus had given up on me. Honestly, I thought this is it I'm destined to spend my life in Prison. After all I've tried everything seemed hopeless! well I get to this work release & like I said at first I didn't want it but then I really started to see things differently. the Program could really benefit me especially w/ my dream of becoming a troubled youth / addiction counselor. I always put my dreams on hold, cause making money was more important at the time! However even this incident w/ this girl happens & now I'm sitting back at Prison in confinement! I was thinking everytime I try to do good, something bad comes along. So I started praying again. I asked why is this really all there is for me (Prison), your words of encouragement really made me realize He's there & he's listening to my prayers! its just so hard cause I'm doing this all alone - my family has left me even though I didn't do anything to them, my old friends dont wanna change - so I cant keep socializing w/ them. I'm so worried I'm going to give up and get out & Go right back to the same life!! its so easy to forget this life in Prison when you Get out!!

I Dont really trust People So its hard to find Someone to Share things with. I've had a hard life but I still try to Smile.

I am truly grateful to now have you wonderful ladies to uplift my spirits - and keep me along my Journal oops of mean Journey!

I Dont care about money or Stamps, I'm just Happy & blessed to meet Positive People with a purpose in life to see & help others Strive for good & Speccally in a situation like this where Sometimes its easy to Give up!

I am grateful for your letters & truly hope to keep you ladies w/ me to give me that extra push when necessary

Thank you & God bless you!

All my Prayers
are w/ you ladies

Sincerely
Jenny J
